The Matrix of Christian Science
(in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, Chapters I–XVI) absolute standpoint (j) relative standpoint (i)	WORD Revelation of God’s nature	CHRIST Translation of God to idea	CHRISTIANITY The realm of ideas	SCIENCE Principle and idea is one

Word Accepting the proposition	CHAPTER I Prayer Tevelation of God’s nature by accepting God’s nature in us	CHAPTER V Animal Magnetism Unmasked As we accept the Christ- translation, the ungodlike is translated back into its native nothingness	CHAPTER IX Creation As we accept the realm of ideas, the ideational universe reveals itself to us	CHAPTER XIII Teaching Christian Science By accepting our oneness with Principle, we are Principle- idea
Christ Power of manifestation in spite of error	CHAPTER II Atonement and Eucharist God’s nature manifests itself in us in spite of the ungodlike in us	CHAPTER VI Science, Theology, Medicine The Christ-translation manifests itself by translating the false constituents into the true constituents of Being	CHAPTER X Science of Being The dynamic power of manifestation of ideas dissolves both latent and concrete error	CHAPTER XIV Recapitulation Principle-idea manifests itself as a calculus of ideas and corrects the calculus of human beliefs
Christianity Exalted being	CHAPTER III Marriage God’s nature demonstrates itself in us as a higher humanhood	CHAPTER VII Physiology The Christ-translation translates mortals into immortals	CHAPTER XI Some Objections Answered The perfect reflection of ideas exalts a theoretical Christianity to a practical Christianity	CHAPTER XV Genesis In the oneness of Principle and idea, creation is exalted in its divine Principle
Science Scientific understanding	CHAPTER IV Christian Science vs. Spiritualism God’s nature can be understood only by scientific methods of understanding	CHAPTER VIII Footsteps of Truth The Christ-translation translates an unscientific consciousness into a scientific consciousness	CHAPTER XII Christian Science Practice A scientific understanding of ideas heals	CHAPTER XVI The Apocalypse Scientific understanding recognizes that on all levels of existence, only the idea of Principle is ever going on

Chapter IX
Creation

(Christianity reflecting the Word)¹

References: The Structure of the Christian Science Textbook—Our Way of Life, Max Kappeler, pp.85–90.

Standpoint: Christianity as Word: Creation consists of ideas

Scriptural Note I and II:

The two Scriptural Notes are two very different statements. What are their points of view and how do they relate to each other?

Introduction: S&H 225:1–10
Compare the introductory paragraph with the last paragraph of the chapter (S&H 267:19–32).

General subjects of the chapter:

1. Read the whole text and see how it deals with the question of limitations and of breaking these limitations. Reading the text chronologically, make notes on this subject with short quotations.
2. The chapter deals very much with the infinite and the finite. How does the text deal with the relationship between the infinite and the finite?
3. The text deals very much with terms like, concept, conception, views, both in a positive and a negative sense. Make notes as to how these terms are used chronologically for metaphysical explanations.
4. The chapter deals very much with “thought.” Reading the text chronologically, how is “thought” used in a negative and in a positive sense?
5. Note how “idea’ and “ideas” are used throughout the chapter, when read chronologically.

The Subjects

Mind	Creation is the infinite image, or infinite idea, of the infinite Mind, because all is Mind (S&H 255:11–257:3).
as Mind:	Human conceptions and limited views are no basis for a true idea of the infinite Godhead (S&H 255:11–18).
as Spirit:	Advancing from a material sense to the spiritual sense, all things are created spiritually by Mind (S&H 256:1–8).
as Soul:	God, the everlasting I AM, is not bounded by corporeality (S&H 256:9–18).
as Principle:	God’s working is incontestable (S&H 256:19–23).
as Life:	An infinite sense of God always brings newness of life (S&H 256:24–27).
as Truth:	Creation is the infinite idea of infinite Mind (S&H 256:28–257:1).
as Love:	All is infinite Mind (S&H 257:1–3).
Spirit	Spirit, not matter, is the substance of an idea and therefore the substance of creation (S&H 257:4–21).
as Mind:	Spirit is the only creator of substance (S&H 257:4–11).
as Spirit:	Substance is not matter, but idea (S&H 257:12–15).
as Soul:	Spiritual ideas cannot be translated into material beliefs (S&H 257:15–21).
Soul	The infinite cannot be expressed in the limited (S&H 257:22–258:18).
as Mind:	Infinite Mind cannot be limited to a finite form (S&H 257:22–258:8).
as Spirit:	Man as true idea reflects infinity (S&H 258:9–12).
as Soul:	Man as the expression of the infinite idea is the image and likeness of God (S&H 258:13–18).
Principle	Man as the true idea of creation is as perfect as its perfect divine Principle (S&H 258:19–259:21).
as Mind:	Humanity is perfected as it gains the true conception of man and God (S&H 258:19–24).
as Spirit:	The perfect concept of man is spiritual (S&H 258:25–30).
as Soul:	Through spiritual sense the generic term man can be comprehended (S&H 258:31–259:5).
as Principle:	Man in divine Science is the perfect idea of the perfect Principle (S&H 259:6–14).
as Life:	Man can never lose his perfection (S&H 259:15–21).

Life	Man reflects the idea of fatherhood by raising thought to the contemplation of creation as ideas (S&H 259:22–262:26).
as Word:	Our models of thought must be immortal ideas (S&H 259:22–260:6).
as Christ:	Mortal thoughts must give way to perfect models (S&H 260:7–30).
as Christianity:	Turning our thoughts away from body to the constant contemplation of realities supernal, we experience the true and the good (S&H 260:31–261:30).
as Science:	Putting off the mortal concepts and rising to the immortal idea, man reaches the absolute center and circumference of his being (S&H 261:31–262:26).
Truth	Man reflects the idea of sonship by claiming the true creation as idea for himself and for others (S&H 262:27–264:31).
as Mind:	The true sense of man begins with divine Mind as the origin of man;—mortal mind is not a cause (S&H 262:27–32).
as Spirit:	Spiritual man, not mortal man, represents the truth of creation;—mortal mind creates materially (S&H 263:1–6).
as Soul:	When thought blends with the spiritual it can taste heaven;—carnal beliefs create deformity (S&H 263:7–19).
as Principle:	A scientific consciousness of creation can discover new ideas;—the multiplication of mortal thoughts is a dense blindness (S&H 263:20–31).
as Life:	Contemplating the permanent facts, the true sense of being is gained;—fleeting concepts bring fading forms (S&H 263:32–264:12).
as Truth:	Correct views of God lead to self-completeness (S&H 264:13–19).
as Love:	Recognizing man’s spiritual being, the glories of God’s creation are understood (S&H 264:20–31).

Love	Man reflects the idea of motherhood by loving the creation of ideas (S&H 264:32–267:32).
as Mind:	The affections and aims of mortals must gravitate Godward (S&H 264:32–265:9).
as Spirit:	Willingness to forsake matter for Spirit confers unfoldment and perennial newness (S&H 265:10–22).
as Soul:	The pains of sense transplant the pleasures from sense to Soul (S&H 265:23–266:5).
as Principle:	The loss of personal friends and joys forces us to win universal Love (S&H 266:20–267:12).
as Life:	Man creates his own heaven by blessing the universe (S&H 266:20–267:12).
as Truth:	God’s man is father, son, and mother to his universe (S&H 267:13–18).
as Love:	Loving God by overcoming all error, the crown of life is received (S&H 267:19–32).
